- Valuation report: Grade 2+ (from 2025)

The BMW M635 CSi is one of the sportiest models in the 6 Series from the 1980s and is now regarded as a classic. Based on the BMW E24 series, it combines elegant coupé design with genuine motorsport technology. The M635 CSi is powered by an inline six-cylinder engine derived directly from the legendary BMW M1, delivering impressive performance for its time.

With its sport-tuned chassis, precise steering and high-quality interior, the model set new standards in the Gran Turismo segment. Today, the M635 CSi is a sought-after collector's car not only because of its performance, but also due to its comparatively low production numbers.

This BMW M635 CSi was originally delivered in Italy and found its way back to Germany in 2015 via a dealer in Munich. The car has been in the same owner's collection ever since.

In December 2023, the vehicle underwent a comprehensive service at BMW and has hardly been driven since.

During its time in Italy, the vehicle was completely repainted once. The paintwork is in good condition, as is the car's interior.

A valuation report dated October 2025 gives it a grade of 2+ (market value: €79,450).
